THE PORCH.

When father built the veranda,
He kicked about the expense;
But ma, she said:
"Don't mind it, Ed—
Don't think of dollars and cents."

2.

That autumn Clara was married,
It made me glad as could be.
And ma would smile
Most all the while,
I'm proud of that porch," said she.

3.

Last summer both Belle and Amy
Would race for the porch at night.
And all the rest
Of us thought best
To stay indoors, out of sight.

4.

But Belle ran faster than Amy—
She got her man in July;
And I'll command
That porch to send
A bachelor's oath sky high.

5.

Last Sunday Amy informed us
That she had told Jimmy "yes,"
And now us three.
Pa, ma and me,
Can get on that porch, I guess.

—Cleveland Leader.

The Handsomest Calendars Ever
Shown in This City

The business man who spends his money in Maysville, simply puts that money into the hands of people who will in turn spend it with him again.

Did you ever think of that?

The business man who spends his money for printing in Louisville, or Cincinnati, or Chicago, or New York, puts that money into the hands of people who never did, nor ever will, spend a dollar in his store.

Did you ever think of that?

Now, in order that a good deal of this money may be kept at home, and spent by home workers and home employers with home merchants, The Ledger Printery has secured the handsomest line of Calendars ever seen in this city, with a price limit to suit every need.

Mr. Richard L. Miles, The Ledger Printery's expert Printer, will call on you in a few days, to do you ever think of that?

Ex-Governor William O. Bradley, who is in very poor health, is now in a hospital at Indianapolis.

BABY QUIRK'S QUICK CURE

Of Torturing Eczema
by Cuticura

When All Else Had Utterly Failed.

"My baby, Owen Herbert Quirk, was afflicted from the age of six weeks with a loathsome running eczema, almost covering his face. I took him to Drs. _____ and _____ of Victoria Road, Aldershot, and he was treated by them for three months, but got much worse, and was a sickening sight to look at. I saw an advertisement of the Cuticura Remedies, and got the Soap, Ointment and Resolvent.

"We noticed an improvement at once, and within a fortnight the running had ceased and the scales were nearly all dried off, and in a month his face was perfectly clear, not a spot left. I have enclosed photograph of him when he was thirteen months old. He is now two years and four months, and has never had the slightest return of it. I am very grateful for the benefits derived from your remedies, and shall feel it a pleasure to make their value known. For corroboration of this statement you may refer any one to Mrs. Williams, 45 Michaels Road, Aldershot, or Mr. Gunstone, 40 Victoria Road, Aldershot, to whom we recommended the remedies for a skin humour, which they also cured. You are at liberty to do what you like with this statement, as I should like all to know of the value of Cuticura."

Elder Degman delivered an instructive sermon to a large and appreciative audience Sunday at Bethany.

The icecream social given in the pretty woods of Elder T. P. Degman was a success both socially and financially.

Elder T. P. Degman, though an ardent Republican, will go to Parks Hill next Saturday to hear William Jennings Bryan.

Mr. George Farris of Fearisville was badly hurt here last Thursday by a span of handsome hay horses. In trying to turn them round they became frightened and went pollmell down the steep bank, throwing Mr. Farris out on a pile of rock, inflicting a serious scalp wound. He was taken to Elder Degman's, a conveyance was procured and he was conveyed home prostrated.

SALEM.

Mrs. Charles K. Hill is on the sick list.

Miss Lula Hill visited friends at Sardis last week.

Squire Rigg was in Germantown Saturday on business.

Mrs. Ivy Ormes and two children of Sardis are visiting here this week.

Mr. Ed Pollitt has a new rubber-tired buggy; also, Mr. and Mrs. H. V. Riggs have a nice new phaeton.

The young folks will enjoy two hayrides this week—one to Tollesboro, another to Ruggles Campgrounds.

FEARIS.

Campmeeting closed Sunday night.

Very dry; corn and tobacco are firing.

Mrs. J. B. Kennard went to King's Mills Sunday.

Tom Farris, who got mashed up at Springdale by his wagon upsetting, is getting well.

Mrs. Rosa B. Malone and Mrs. Mollie Boyd left Tuesday morning for a week's visit to relatives in La Fontaine, Ind.

The Executive Committee of the G. A. R. failed to take action Saturday on reunion matters and adjourned to meet at the regular meeting August 6th at 2 p. m. on Campground.

The public term of the Public School began here Monday, and we trust the teacher will do his duty if the Trustees do fail to do theirs. Had a long time to finish repairs on house but not a lick done.

The busy season failed to bring the usual crowds to Campmeeting but everything passed off in a pleasant way. There were no arrests for disorderly conduct, and the gate fees paid expenses. Now let us get to work and with the assistance of the good people make our G. A. R. Reunion a success so far as patriotism is concerned. Remember the dates—August 26th and 27th.

A loaded wagon belonging to a farmer broke down at Mathew's switch yesterday evening.

The other night two colored young men were enjoying a spin on their wheels on the smooth surface in lower Market street, and not being aware of the fact that a rope was stretched from one side of the street to the other were thrown from their wheels with considerable force. Other than being greatly surprised at their sudden and unexpected precipitation they were unharmed.

Several from this place are attending the revival at Tollesboro.

This is the liveliest season of the year for this place, there being much travel on route to Glen Springs and Ruggles Campgrounds.
